DEDICATION

"I dedicate all this to you that my book may not be without so great a name as yours."

— Tibullus

This year the Virginian Staff would like to spotlight Mrs. Tom (Mary V.) Daniel. Ever since coming to Virginia High she has stressed the importance of a well rounded education. She has given the school an enthusiasm for the classics and humanities. Being a true lady herself she encourages the best of manners among the students.

During the time she has been at Virginia High she has not only taught four years of Latin, but World History and has recently introduced a Sociology course into the curriculum. Under her sponsorship the Latin Club is one of the most active in the school and state Junior Classical League. It is with a great deal of pride that the staff dedicates the 1973 VIRGINIAN to Mrs. Tom (Mary V.) Daniel.

With President Nixon's historic trip to Peking highlighting the year, an Oriental theme was chosen for the 1972 prom. The theme chosen was "The Oriental Express".

Pep and enthusiasm once again filled the hearts of the VHS students. Cheering became a must as each class tried to win the "Spirit Stick" awarded to the most deserving class. Orange and black cars appeared mysteriously decorated with crepe paper. Water balloons filled the air as the "dirty Vikings" made their annual trip to VHS for the balloon throw. SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

Each year faculty members are asked to choose from the senior class ten students who have demonstrated comendable traits in stability, scholastic achievement, and citizenship in learning and in service. The students are selected by members of the faculty who have taught at Virginia High for at least one year. Being selected as a SENIOR SUPERLATIVE is one of the highest honors a student can receive.

MISS VIRGINIAN 1973
MERI KISTNER

Each year a Miss Virginian contest is sponsored by the Virginian staff. Any senior girl may enter the contest by submitting her picture to the staff. This year thirty-eight pictures were submitted and Mr. Clyde Wright, the pitcher for the Los Angeles Angels was the judge.

Mr. Wright stated that it was his first opportunity to judge a beauty contest and that the decision was a hard one.

The future hopes of the "California Angel" are to get married, make a million dollars and live long enough to spend it, and come back home to live in Tennessee after winning a World Series.

DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than your self. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.
